

Eight Qualify as Candidates For City Primary May 12

Commissioners to serve for first year beginning July 1.

Three will vie for the office of Mayor, while the others will seek nomination for the two Commissioner posts.

The ticket follows:

FOR MAYOR—
Joseph Benvenutti Jr., attorney at law and present attorney for the local Housing Authority; graduate of St. Stanislaus and University of Mississippi; World War II veteran; married and father of one young son; seeking political office for first time.

John Scafide; partner in C. C. Groceries, at present Supt. of Natural Gas Division of Bay St. Louis; graduate of St. Stanislaus and Tulane University; married and father of three children; this is his third try for office of Mayor.

Horace L. Kergosian, local real estate operator, formerly thief and collector of Hancock County, married and has five children. First attempt to be elected to Municipal office.

FOR COMMISSIONER—
The following will vie for the Commissioner's posts:

Nellius A. Favre, formerly connected with Sea Coast Ecio; graduate of St. Stanislaus and Southern School of Printing, Nashville; married and one young son; first political experience, although he is the son of the late Alphonse G. Favre, who served in Circuit and Chancery Clerk of Hancock County for more than 20 years.

Emile G. Pizasa, operator of St. Stanislaus Funeral Home and Coroner of Hancock County; grad. of St. Stanislaus; married; has six children; was elected to the last county election, receiving the largest amount of votes over any other individual candidate.

and presently employed in defense work in South Carolina; graduate of High School married and father of two children.

of one young daughter, seeking a litical office for the first time.

J. Cyril Glover, incumbent, who completing his first term as City Commissioner, is seeking reelection; graduate of St. Stanislaus; married; has two sons; defeated J. C. Roland in 1936; present post-Commissioner in 1940.

Sylvan J. Ladner, incumbent, already completing his first term as Commissioner and seeking reelection; graduate of St. Stanislaus; previously employed by L. & N Railroad; married and has three children; now serving as clerk and tax collector.

The names of George F. Stevens, Ben F. Hille and Maurice Artigues will appear on the ballot as members of the Municipal Democratic Executive Committee.

Mayor Warren Carver is not seeking reelection. He has just announced his plans for the future after he completes his term of office on June 30. He formerly was connected with the firm of Monti-Carver Plumbing Company before entering politics.

BASEBALL

Next Sunday, April 19, a game will be played here with a club from New Orleans where the youth program is under the direction of Harry (Doc) Glover, who is well known here in Bay St. Louis.

Also on this occasion the new park will be officially dedicated. Many friends of the Juniors from New Orleans will be present, so local people are being urged to get together here at home and go out and support the boys in their efforts, and at least match the crowd from New Orleans.

The Bay Juniors journeyed to New Orleans last Sunday where they met the Gold Seal Creamery Club, a NORD club managed by Mrs. L. Balaski. Mrs. Balaski has been in youth work for many years and stands very high in the estimation of NORD officials. The game was played at Delgado Center and was won by Gold Seal, by the narrow margin of 15-14.

Silver Tea Held Tuesday

The "Silver Tea" given by the women of Christ Church Guild 1 at the home of Mrs. N. L. Carter Tuesday afternoon was one of the delightful events of the year.

Each year this group sponsors a similar "Tea" and the proceeds are used by the Guild in Church work. The home of Mrs. Carter was beautifully decorated for the occasion with myriads of flowers provided by ladies of the church, and the refreshments served were also made and donated by members.

More than a hundred callers during the hours of the Tea assured a successful afternoon, both from a financial standpoint and a social gathering.

Wins In La. Bridge Tourney

First place winner in the Pelican pair of the duplicate bridge tournament held last week in New Orleans was Mrs. Clara Hartwell of Bay St. Louis and Measire.

Mrs. Hartwell has for many years been recognized as one of the outstanding bridge enthusiasts of the city, and has won many laurels for her expert playing. She and her partner, Mrs. Charles Buckman, also placed third in the Crescent Pair. They received a sterling silver trophy for their winning of the Pelican, and Master points for participation in both events.

Bridge players from all sections of the United States and Mexico entered for competition in the Louisiana Bridge Tournament which featured these events.

Demonstration Meeting At Bayou LaCroix

A home demonstration meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Noah Garcia in Bayou LaCroix community Thursday April 9. Miss Sarah Weaver, Home Demonstration agent, demonstrated how to make Rick-rack ear bobs.

Those attending were Mesdames Iona Wainwright, Bertha Leiner, Noah Garcia, Viridile Leiner, Agnes Chevis, Ida Whitney, and two 4-H Club members, Norma and Jeanette Garcia. Refreshments were served.

EXPRESSES THANKS

The Holy Name Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Church has expressed thanks to all who aided in the successful party recently staged by the Society.

Mrs. Irwin Huxen of Alexandria, La., was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Stieffel Sr. at their home in Waveland. During her stay she was the guest of honor at an outdoor barbecue supper given by her hosts.

SUCH LOW PRICES

There's no April Foolin' at C & S Fine Foods! Nope, these low, low prices you see listed below are the genuine article, made possible because so many people make it a thrift habit to shop here for all their food needs. And talk about amazing values! We're out to fool the high cost of living, and when you shop here you'll fool the feller who says you can't serve fit-for-a-King meals on a food budget.
